Amphill, Beds – Amphill Director of Rugby Mark Lavery is delighted to confirm the latest additions to the senior playing squad for Amphill & District's 2015-16 National 1 campaign.

Fly half Will Maisey and backrow Kiefer Laxton, both 22, have joined Amphill from Nottingham Rugby.

Last season Will, 1.91m (6'3") made 24 appearances for Nottingham in the Championship and B&I Cup scoring 101 points.

Educated at Kenilworth School, Hartpury College and Nottingham Trent University where he studied Sports Science, Will is a fly half whose defence, running, passing and kicking make up a rounded skill set.

Backrow Kiefer Laxton, 1m82cm (6ft), 98kg (15st2lb) made his debut for Nottingham against Llanelli Scarlets in the B&I cup in February 2011 aged 18.

Since then he has played 15 times for Nottingham in the Championship and B&I cup and 13 on loan at Leicester Lions in National 2.

Educated at Denstone College & Loughborough University where he also studied Sports Science, Kiefer is an openside flanker whose athletic dynamism and support play make him stand out.

Director of Rugby Mark Lavery comments "Will & Kiefer bring Championship experience along with their proven skills and will further strengthen competition for places in our match day squad."
